A significant focus of the DPFAA is to provide a venue for the exhibiting and marketing of our member's art, primarily through art show events. In this regard, the DPFAA is considered as one of the premier art organizations in this respect. These events, as well as other organizational support tasks and events cannot be successful without volunteer support. We encourage all members to join your fellow artists in volunteering to help with one or more of the following areas.

- Interest in a Board, Chair, or Committee Position
- High School Art Departments Donations Process
- Website Maintenance
- Membership Administration
- Outdoor Shows: Planning, Advertising, Logistics
- General Meetings: Set-up, Greeter, Refreshments
- Treasurer/Bookkeeper
- Newsletter: Editing, Design, Mailing, Advertising
- Computer work (forms, letters, labels, lists)

Some of the Many Benefits of the Dana Point Fine Arts Association:

- A non-profit organization that promotes and serves Orange County artists and has been since 1989... that's a lot of experience!
- Several outdoor art shows at Premiere locations in the city of Dana Point.
- An interactive website that is chockfull of information, art show applications, member art displays and links, DPFAA newsletters, and calendars of art events.
- Special event General Meetings during the year, scheduled on an as-needed basis.
- Camaraderie of beginning, emerging, and prominent artists.
- Contribution to raising awareness of, and advancing interest in art and artists.
- Current information about upcoming shows and contests, art product resources, products, galleries, marketing strategies, sales and merchandizing ideas, art publications, etc.
- The rewards of providing monetary donations for equipment and scholarships to local High School Art Departments.
